

Who is eligible to sign (as Archaeologist) the object records during the declaration of the private collections of archaeological objects

In a concern for scientific rigor and professionalism, the DGA sets hereafter the standards for the eligible person who can sign the object records during the declaration of the private collections of archaeological objects.

The eligible persons are:

- A person having a PhD in Archaeology with a minimum of 3 years of experience in the domain of archaeological objects identification.
- A person having an MA in Archaeology with a minimum of 5 years of experience in the domain of archaeological objects identification.
- A person having a BA in Archaeology with a minimum of 10 years of experience in the domain of archaeological objects identification.